

I enjoy not being afraid to answering my phone for fear of someone calling to sell me something or wanting a donation. I enjoy my meals and private time without someone presuring me on the phone.